The Gospel of the Family:
Joy for the World

“Clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, meekness and patience ...above all, clothe yourselves with love!”
(Colossians 3.12, 14)

April 22nd 2018

4th Sunday of Easter

Pastor, Fr. Gerard Monaghan

GOSPEL : Jesus is the Good Shepherd. This was the message of John 10. He is our shepherd because he was willing to sacrifice himself for his flock. What responsibilities do you have in life? What sacrifices have you made to carry out your responsibilities? Sacrifice seems to be an ugly word these days. No political leader dare breathe the word, lest he or she loses the next election. No media star or technological CEO dares mention the concept, lest they be called "hypocrite." In these days of the hyper-economy and the "ME!" culture, the notion of giving up a desire or putting off a pleasure for the good of others is "verboten." Self-indulgence, not self-giving, is society's keyword. Just how far should we be willing to sacrifice for others and for our ideals? Look to Jesus for the answer.

For the repose of the soul of Jeniffer Gagnier requested by her parents, Jane and Jerome Gagnier
