2nd Sunday of Advent

Pastor. Fr. Gerard Monaghan

John the Baptist

The Second Sunday in Advent always presents the figure of the Baptist, the one who prepared the way for the Christ. The prophecies of Malachi, Isaiah, and Exodus were also used by the Essene community in Qumran to explain their reason for being, so the concepts of desert preparation were culturally "in the air." It is possible that early Christians adopted these references from John's disciples about the Baptist, then applied his ministry to Jesus of Nazareth. Nonetheless, the appearance of John marked stepping stone toward the Christian faith.

For the repose of the soul of Shane Maheu requested by his parents Joanne and Charlie Maheu

Jesus speaking to St. Faustina.

Tell my priests that hardened sinners will repent on hearing their words when they speak about My unfathomable mercy, about the compassion I have for them in My Heart. To priests who proclaim and extol My mercy, I will give wondrous power; I will anoint their words and touch the hearts of those to whom they will speak. 1521
